

Correction and Apology

In the article “BAGS A LA JAPONAIS & ECO-FRIENDLY TO BOOT!” on page 10 of Japan-i October 2010 Vol.21 English version, an error was written in the following sentence: “Leather goods carrying the Japan Eco Leather mark are only made of leather satisfying the requirements of Japan Eco Leather Standard.”

The sentence should have been as follows:

“Items carrying the JAPAN ECO LEATHER mark are either certified leather satisfying the requirements of the JAPAN ECO LEATHER Standard or products in principle where 60% or more of the surface is made of JAPAN ECO LEATHER.”

Japan Leather and Leather Goods Industries Association sincerely apologizes for the above error.